Although there are currently no legal requirements explicitly for transparency on local councils with a turnover between £25,000 and £200,000, Little Harrowden Parish Council complies with the Transparency Regulations which relate to smaller Authorities.

We publish:

- All items of expenditure over £100
- End of year accounts – statement of accounts, annual return form, bank reconciliation and significant variances
- Annual Governance Statement
- Internal Audit Report
- List of councillor or member responsibilities (see ACM minutes)
- Location of public land and building assets including, description, location, owner or custodian, date and cost of acquisition or proxy value and present use
- Minutes, agendas and papers of formal meeting
